CELSA Group™, 6 reasons to choose us

01

We are leaders in what we do

CELSA Group™ is a world leader in the steel sector and long steel product manufacturing. Reaching this position gives us numerous opportunities to carry out projects around the world. Innovation and continuous improvement are part of our DNA. We are leaders because we are risk-takers, always exploring new ways of doing things with an open, proactive mindset.

02

We train professionals and promote our talent

We know that a well-trained team means we can face challenges and demands with the maximum guarantee of success. This is why we have high-level development plans and provide the starting point for many professional careers, both nationally and internationally. Because we firmly believe that if people grow, then the Group grows too.

We are committed to the circular economy

We seek excellence in environmental management and sustainable development. We strive to develop an industrial dynamic based on innovative recycling techniques, allowing us to search for alternatives to the use of natural resources and thereby protect the planet. We are one of the largest recyclers of scrap iron and have received major recognitions, such as the Sustainability for Steel Construction Products Mark, SustSteel®.

04

We believe in people

At CELSA Group™ we are proud to have boosted a large number of successful careers paths within the company and we do not tolerate discrimination of any kind. We believe in people, in their capabilities and in their values. We believe in equality and diversity, which we demonstrate through internal recognition to reward our people for the way they are, with the Values Awards, Innova Awards or Francisco Rubiralta Awards.

05

We are committed to innovation

Innovation and Industry 4.0 are among the strategic pillars of the company: they have made us operationally more efficient and allowed us to research and develop successful production processes. We are not satisfied with what we have and seek improvement in all possible areas. For us, every challenge is an opportunity to keep growing.

06

We love what we do

The history of our Group is forged on the foundations of passion, humility, honesty, creative perseverance and teamwork. We always strive to offer our customers excellent service and relations, which we achieve by firmly believing in what we do. We want you to feel what we feel, and be a part of it.

Programmes

If you are passionate about challenges and opportunities, this is your Group.

We want you to grow in the CELSA Group™ through our experience and our vision of the world, which is why we have different adapted programmes aimed at developing talent.

Performance management

Objectives, areas of responsibility, competencies and values are evaluated. Improvement plans are established aimed at progress and obtaining the best results as professionals and as an organization.

Professional career management

Process by which people and professionals know their strengths, their areas for improvement and their possibilities for future development as future directors and managers.

Talent management and succession plans

Capacities are detected and developed, and personal expectations, future leaders and the organization's needs are brought together to guarantee a promising future and generational change within the Group.

Management of objectives

Process of individual assignment of the objectives of the organization through deployment in cascade. The objectives come from the strategic reflection, the budget and the annual assessment of values.

To offer our team the best preparation, the Group has implemented the People Development Integrated System (PDIS), a tool aimed at managing people's talent.

Based on this, the qualities are identified and the career that best suits your profile is planned. This system has been developed in all business units with the aim of:

ENSURING the satisfaction of our professionals and provide value for the retention of talent.

PROVIDING them with a common, easy and coherent tool that catalyzes the strategy of the company through people.

BUILDING the attitudes, skills and knowledge necessary to contribute and add to the CELSA Group™ project.

ATTRACTING, motivating and developing the best and brightest talent.

Development programmes

At CELSA Group™ we have different adapted programmes aimed at the development of internal and external talent. We want you to grow with us, learn from our experience, and in return we will learn from your view of the world

The aim of the programmes is to provide candidates with the best training with a comprehensive view of the organisation in each of the Group's functional areas.
